divide themselves by lot into three classes, the first class to consist of three members, to serve for three years; the second class to consist of three members, to serve for two years; the third class to consist of three members, to serve for one year. At each annual election thereafter three members shall be elected to serve for three years, and the retiring members shall not be eligible for renomination or election for the space of one year. In case of a vacancy occurring in the Committee other than by expiration of time of service, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the Committee until the next annual election, when the remainder of the unexpired term, if any, shall be filled by election as in other cases.

SEC. 3. The President shall, at least thirty days before the annual meeting, appoint a committee of five members, not more than two of whom shall be officers of the Club, and the said committee shall nominate candidates for vacancies about to occur by the expiration of the terms of Governors. Such nominations shall be posted by the said committee upon the bulletin board of the Club at least twenty days before said election. Any member may nominate other candidates for the same offices, but the names of all such candidates shall be posted upon the bulletin board at least ten days before the said election, and no person shall be eligible to the office of Governor unless he shall have been nominated and posted as aforesaid.

Independent
Nominations

The Secretary of the Club shall cause ballots to be printed containing all the names so posted, and shall furnish the same to the members of the Club at the opening of the meeting at which the election is to take place.

8. To put an end to membership for any conduct of a member not in violation of the by-laws or the rules, but improper and prejudicial to the Club.

Special Meetings

9. To call special meetings of the Club to consider a specific subject.

Rules

10. To make rules for their own government, and to fix and enforce penalties for the violation of such rules.

IV

DUTY OF OFFICERS

President and
Vice-President

SECTION I. The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Governing Committee. In the event of their absence, a meeting of the Club or of the Governing Committee may elect its presiding officer.

Treasurer and Secretary

The Treasurer shall keep the accounts and report thereon monthly, and give bond in the sum of $2,000, to be approved by the Governing Committee; and the Secretary shall keep the records of the Club.

V

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The number of resident members, exclusive of officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, shall not exceed two hundred and fifty. Adult male residents in the United States may become members upon election by the Governing Committee, and payment of the entrance fee and yearly dues. If such payment is not made within thirty days after notice of election shall have been given to the candidate, the election shall be void. Limit

SEC. 2. Members may be either resident or non-resident, but no person residing within twenty miles of the city of Harrisburg shall be a non-resident member, nor shall such non-resident member have the right of voting: Provided, however, That persons temporarily resident or doing business in the city may, at the Resident and Non-resident discretion of the Governing Committee, be elected as non-resident members; and, Provided further, That any non-resident member who shall become a permanent resident within the limits above prescribed shall thereby become a resident member, and shall pay an additional entrance fee of twenty-five dollars.

Candidates for Membership

SEC. 3. Candidates for membership must be proposed and seconded by two members, not members of the Governing Committee, in their own handwriting, in a book to be kept for that purpose, at least ten days prior to a meeting of the Governing Committee, and their names must be posted on the bulletin board in the Club House for the same length of time. A list of these names shall also be sent to each member of the Governing Committee prior to their meeting.

Second Ballot

A second ballot upon the election of a proposed member shall be taken at any time before the adjournment of a meeting, upon the motion of a single member of the Governing Committee; but after the meeting a rejected candidate shall not, within six months, be again balloted for.

Candidates whose names shall have been laid over at two consecutive meetings shall not be again balloted for until after the names succeeding theirs on the list shall have been elected or rejected. Any person having resigned from the Club and being again proposed for membership shall be balloted for before any other candidate.

Names

Members

SEC. 4. All resignations shall be made in writing, and served upon the Secretary.

Resignations

No resignation shall be received from any member in arrears to the Club.

All resignations must be presented before the first day of November, or the first day of May, following; otherwise the member shall be held liable for the dues of the following six months.

Upon the resignation, death or dismissal from the Club of any member thereof, his membership, and all rights acquired under it, shall be thereupon and thereby terminated and ended, and all the interests in the property of the Club of any person ceasing to be a member shall revert to and be vested in the Club.

VI

ARMY AND NAVY LIST

Army
and Navy
Members,
Election
of

SECTION I. Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States may become visitors for six months, with the privilege of renewals for like periods, through election by the Governing Committee and paying the dues of non-resident members; such election to be governed by the same rules as the election of members.

VII

ENTRANCE FEES AND YEARLY DUES

Entrance Fees

SECTION I. The entrance money to be paid upon admission into the Club by a resident member shall be fifty dollars and by a non-resident member ten dollars; Provided, that no entrance fee shall be collected from resident members until the resident membership reaches two hundred and twenty-five active members.

Dues

The dues shall be forty dollars a year for each resident member, and twenty dollars for each non-resident member, and shall be payable in equal semi-annual instalments in advance, on the first day of November and the first day of May; Provided, that any member having resigned from the Club and being again elected to membership shall not be required to pay an entrance fee.

SEC. 2. Whenever the total resident membership of the Club shall exceed two hundred and twenty-five and non-resident one hundred and fifty, it shall be the duty of the Governing Committee, at their regular monthly meeting in November of each year, to set aside from the annual dues of all members in excess of that number, the sum of five dollars for each member both resident and non-resident, the amount so set aside to be placed to the credit of the sinking fund for the redemption of the mortgage indebtedness upon the Club property.

Nonpayment

Expulsion

Remission of Penalty

SECTION I. The name of a member who has not paid his semi-annual dues within sixty days after the beginning of the half year, shall be posted by the House Committee on the bulletin board or other conspicuous place in the Club House; and should he neglect payment, without good cause, for thirty days after such posting, he shall thereupon cease to be a member. Provided, That upon his written application and the payment of all dues to the date thereof the Governing Committee may, upon such terms as it may deem proper, remit the penalty of this by-law. In all cases, however, payment must be made before the beginning of the next half year.

SEC. 2. All accounts shall be made up on the first of the month and mailed to each member at his known address. If the same are not discharged by the twenty-fifth of each month, the member shall be notified by letter by the Treasurer, that his name will be posted upon the bulletin board or other conspicuous place in the Club House, and that he will be denied further credit if his account be not paid by twelve o'clock noon on the first day of the following month; and if said account be not paid by twelve o'clock noon of the first day of the following month such member shall be posted, as aforesaid, and shall be denied further credit, and if his said account be not paid within thirty days after said posting, he shall be suspended until such charges are paid; and if the said charges are not paid within thirty days after such suspension, his name shall be dropped from the roll of the Club, subject to the provisions of Section 7, Article III.
